

Utah Valley Chamber Newsletter, May 2010 Issue

Article submitted by: Utah Valley CVB, Charlene Christensen

Family Reunions and Gatherings - 101

Enjoy time spent together with friends and family, remembering the past, celebrating the present and looking forward to the future. Delicious food, endless activities and an inspiring setting provide the perfect atmosphere for new memories at your next Family Reunion in Utah Valley!

Most likely there's a family reunion being planned by one of your family members and perhaps that person is even you. Possibly you'd like to see your family reconnect here in Utah Valley and continue to build ties but becoming the organizer of such a get-together may seem a bit daunting. Whether you're planning your family reunion this year or next (or are simply thinking about it) the resources available to you through the Bureau unquestionably will assist you in your efforts. Successful reunions are dependent on a good leader and team of dedicated people which can even include one of our staff. We'd be happy to assist.

Share your reunion history or ideas, dates, number and ages of guests, number and type of hotel rooms needed, any special needs with one of our dedicated staff to begin the process. Once we become familiar with your requirements and type of event we can then begin to suggest varying reunion site possibilities. We'd be happy to take you on a Utah Valley field trip to explore the possibilities and fine tune what might work best for your family gathering. Free event planning services include help with lodging, function space, transportation needs, and venue tours, welcome bags big enough to add your own personalized items, suggested itineraries, a calendar of events, attraction group rates and more. Think of us as your Family Reunion concierge service. And we're free!

Give us a call and let us make your next Family Reunion a perfect success! Also available is the Family Reunion Guide at UtahValley.com.

Contact: Utah Valley Convention and Visitors Bureau

Address: 111 South University Avenue, Provo

Phone: (801) 851-2100

e-mail: visitors@utahvalley.org