

CAMP FLOYD STATE PARK TO HOST 19th CENTURY VALENTINE DANCE

Fairfield – Take a step back in time to the 19th century with a Valentine Dance at Camp Floyd State Park. Held in the historic Fairfield Schoolhouse, participants will dance the Virginia Reel, Grand March, Polkas and more with music provided by The Firewood Band. Dance instruction and calling will be provided by Kimberly Grant of Old Glory Vintage Dancers. Punch and cookies will also be provided. This is a fun, unique way of celebrating Valentine's with your sweetheart.

The event will be held Saturday, February 13, 2010 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Pre-registration and a $25 per couple fee are required. Early registration is recommended as the event will be limited to 15 couples. Period attire is encouraged, but not required.

Established in 1858, Camp Floyd housed the largest concentration of U.S. troops then in the United States. The troops were sent to Utah to suppress a rumored Mormon rebellion, which never took place. Dancing was a favorite recreational past time for the soldiers at Camp Floyd. The army was recalled back east in 1861 for the Civil War emergency.

Camp Floyd State Park is located in the town of Fairfield, 22 miles southwest of Lehi on State Highway 73. For more information or to register, please contact the park at 801-768-8932.
